

Results of the evaluation surveys GW

This survey details the satisfaction levels given by the GW0 students on both the quality of training provided and on the trainers who provided their training.

Goal

Maintain and improve the quality of training courses. Satisfaction surveys serve as a starting point for us to make decisions, set objectives, identify learners' needs and act within the framework of improving our training.

Methodology

In the satisfaction surveys a total of 23 questions are scored from 1 to 10 and they are divided into six blocks: course content, the activities and methodologies used, the training skills of the teaching staff, the organisation and delivery of the training action and general satisfaction.

Results

The GW0 BST, BTT and BRT trainers at our training centres in Mexico and Spain have achieved a 97% satisfaction rate in the evaluations made by both internal and external students.

The GW0 courses given in Mexico and Spain have been rated with a satisfaction rate of more than 97%.
